

Dan Johnson
Spokane International Airport
Director of Engineering & Facilities

Dan Johnson has over 18 years of Engineering, Project Management, and Supervision experience. He has a B. S. in Civil Engineering from the University of Washington, Masters of Science in Engineering Management and is a Registered Professional Engineer in the state of Washington. Dan is also an Accredited Airport Executive with AAAE. This position directly supervises the Engineering/ Project Group and has responsibility of coordination, budgeting, funding priority, and planning for the Airfield Maintenance Department, Terminal Maintenance, Fuel Facility, and the Business Park.

Major areas of responsibility include:

Engineering/Project Management

- Provide planning for Airport Improvement Program (AIP)
- Procure professional services for project design and construction management
- Budget preparation and management for SIA maintenance departments and Business Park
- Develop hiring practices for all departments
- Formulate training and supervisor development for departments

Airfield Maintenance

- Coordinate FAA Part 139 airfield compliance
- Oversee Snow Removal Planning, Scheduling, and Equipment
- Develop grounds maintenance program
- Supervise the Fleet Management System

Terminal Maintenance

- Negotiate service contracts for special systems
- Oversee Maintenance Management Systems
- Evaluate and Terminal Infrastructure issues
- Coordinate Telecommunications and computer systems

Fuel Facility

- Oversee the function and Maintenance of the Facility
- Ensure compliance with local and industry standards ATA 103 and API

Airport Business Park

- Coordinate tenant improvement projects
- Plan overall maintenance program
- Assist in developing new sites to meet the market needs
- Provide customer service to Tenant occupied Airport Facilities